The reverse designs vary according to the theme:

- Host cities: These feature iconic elements of Mexico City, Guadalajara, and Monterrey, combined with football motifs, the official graphic identity of each city, and the logos of the International Federation of Association Football (FIFA, for its acronym in French).
- Mexico as host country: These designs showcase elements that honor the nation's history, traditions, and natural heritage.

Availability and sale of coins

The sale of FIFA World Cup 2026™ commemorative coins will begin in the second half of May 2026 and will proceed as follows:

- Domestic market: Through national distributors authorized by Banco de México.
 - See the full list of national distributors

- International market: Exclusive international distribution will be handled by Münzhandelsgesellschaft mbH & Co. KG Deutsche Münze (MDM), a company authorized by FIFA.
 - See information on MDM

Important considerations when purchasing precious metal coins and coins with special packaging

- Allocation: Coins will be allocated to distributors equitably, based on the volume of requests received and in accordance with the availability of pieces.
- Sales conditions: Each distributor sets the pieces they are interested in distributing, establishes their own prices, sales processes, delivery methods, and customer service. Banco de México does not intervene in these commercial decisions nor is it responsible for them.
- Recommendation: Consult the distributors' official channels directly to verify availability, prices, and terms.
- Precious metal prices: These are subject to international market references and the exchange rate.
